ROPES & GRAY

Ropes & Gray in Washington, D.C.:

Defining Excellence in the Nation's Capital

The outcomes of our matters reshape industries and change lives. That caliber of work gets noticed: we're top of the AmLaw A-List and Financial Times' "FT law firm index," with leading rankings in private equity, asset management, life sciences, and health care. This is a firm where exceptional people build extraordinary careers.

With its strategic presence in the nation's capital, lawyers in our Washington, D.C. office work across a variety of industries but also provide vital support to clients with legal issues involving a strong government component. As an associate in Washington D.C., you'll help address fascinating challenges for our clients alongside attorneys who have worked at government and regulatory agencies, the same bodies before which they now represent clients.

"Our D.C. office gives associates the opportunity to work on sophisticated matters at the intersection of business, regulation, and government. With 45 years in the nation's capital and five practice groups under one roof, we also offer associates the training, the exposure, and the platform to build truly extraordinary careers."

— Ama Adams, Office Managing Partner

The firmwide matters below are just a few examples of how our lawyers break new legal ground.

Eli Lilly and Company

By advising Eli Lilly and Company on six major acquisitions in 2026, we helped expand their pipeline in inflammation, oncology, infectious disease, next-generation vaccines and mental health therapeutics.

TSG Consumer Partners

We represented TSG Consumer Partners in its strategic investment in Los Tacos No. 1, a restaurant known for its authentic Tijuana-style tacos. The partnership is designed to bring Los Tacos No. 1 to a wider audience while keeping the food and shops true to its roots.

Genstar Capital

A deal that brought together teams from Mergers & Acquisitions, Asset Management, Private Equity, Tax, Employment & Benefits, Antitrust and Intellectual Property. The result: a definitive agreement to sell First Eagle Investments to Victory Capital Holdings, Inc., for total consideration of $7 billion.
